RUSSIA

KERENSKY'S FAILURE

LONDON, Nov. 18. Reuter's Petrograd Correspondent, telegraphing on Saturday, states that after defeating M. Kerensky's troops, the Maximalist Council of Commissioners proclaimed the right of the different peoples of Russia to decide their own form of Government, including the separation and formation of independent States.

The Maximalists insist upon the inclusion of Lenin and Trotsky in any composite Socialist Government and the holding of the majority of the portfolios, including the Foreign, Labour and Interior Ministries.

The Maximalist Commissioners have closed the Russo-Swedish frontier at Tornea.

News of the fighting at Moscow, which lasted for a week, is most contradictory, and it is impossible to say whether the casualties can be numbered by hundreds or by thousands. The Maximalists at Petrograd sent detachments of sailors, soldiers and Red Guards to Moscow with cannon and machine-guns which continuously bombarded the Kremlin and the Town Hall which are the chief strongholds of the military Cadets and other Government adherents. Many shells burst in private houses, starting fires.

It is reported that the Government troops, amounting to an Army Corps under the order of the Army Committee, have reached Huga en route for Petrograd, to end the civil war and the dictatorship of the Maximalists.

The "Ukraine Assembly" has declared the independence of Ukraine. It is stated that M. Kerensky's Cossacks numbered only 300.

KERENSKY'S STAFF ARRESTED.

LONDON, Nov. 18. Reuter's Correspondent at Petrograd, telegraphing on Friday, states that the Maximalist troops have occupied Gatchina and that M. Kerensky's staff has been arrested. M. Kerensky fled and orders for his arrest were transmitted by wireless.

Telegraphing on Saturday, the Correspondent states that hostilities have ceased at Moscow and terms have been signed whereby M. Kerensky's so-called White Guard surrenders its arms and the Committee of Public Safety is to be dissolved.

The Maximalist conditions for entering into a composite Socialist Government, include the control of the troops in Petrograd and Moscow and the arming of the workmen, throughout Russia.

M. Nemtsov, the ex-Foreign Minister, is in hiding, after arranging for the security of the copies of the treaties with the Allies. The Maximalists have ordered his arrest and the recovery of the documents.

CAUSES OF KERENSKY'S FAILURE.

LONDON, Nov. 18. Reuter's Correspondent at Petrograd, telegraphing on November 14, states that M. Kerensky's failure was due to his indecision and his reliance chiefly on words. He is constitutionally unable to face facts, preferring to ponder to the weaknesses of the mob. His whole blarney was only realized at the eleventh hour when he apparently hoped to restore order out of chaos with a handful of Cossacks and Dragoon and a few guns.

The Maximalists completely controlled Petrograd by Monday. The military Academies held out to the last, and the Cadets resisted pluckily, but they were mercilessly slain and their bodies were thrown into the canal.

Indications point to the formation of a composite Socialist Cabinet, with a peace platform.

The Maximalists claim predominance in such a Cabinet.

The other Socialist parties are anxious to avoid bloodshed, but the Maximalist extremists openly advocate an internal fight to a finish.

Sir George Buchanan, the British Ambassador, and the other Allied representatives are remaining at Petrograd.

The British colony at Petrograd, so far, has not been endangered.

ORDERS BY THE NEW COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

LONDON, Nov. 18. A Russian official message, transmitted by wireless, states:—

An official notification signed by Lenin has been issued in Petrograd in which he states he has temporarily assumed the post of Commander-in-Chief and orders the stoppage of further troops proceeding to Petrograd. Only transports connected with the military operations will be permitted to proceed.

THE POSITION IN FINLAND.

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 18. The Politika states that a telegram from Haparanda confirms the message from Copenhagen with regard to the strike in Finland, and states that the proclamation of an Independent Finnish Republic is expected.

THE CONFLICT WITH PACIFISTS.

ZURICH, Nov. 18. Four people were killed and many injured in a conflict between the police and 2,000 pacifists, last evening. The troops were called out and fired blank cartridges. Order was restored by the morning.

UNsinkable SHIPS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18. The Shipping Board has approved of France building a score of 4,000 ton unsinkable ships in the United States.

It is said that only the effect of the explosion of four torpedoes on the hull of one of these unsinkable ships was to destroy the cargo in the area of the explosion.

RUSSIA'S FINANCIAL POSITION.

VERY FAR FROM BEING ALARMING.

"The Daily Chronicle's" Special Correspondent at Petrograd in a recent letter wrote:

The fall in the rate of the rouble, the decline in production, the steady rise in prices throughout Russia, and the enormous output of paper money have induced in many quarters an extremely pessimistic view of the present financial position of Russia.

In respect to the purely financial position such pessimism is not justified. The Russian Ministry of Finance is pursuing a business-like policy, and securing the co-operation and advice of the ablest financial experts in the country without regard to party ties.

Mr. Nekrasov is now the Minister of Finance, but as much of his time is necessarily devoted to general politics, a great deal of responsibility falls on his assistant, Professor Bernadski, a well-known economist. From Mr. Nekrasov and Professor Bernadski I have received the following statement of their views on the present financial position:

The first point they noted was the satisfactory character of the revenue returns. The income tax, for instance, which has only recently been introduced, is coming in far better than could reasonably have been expected, considering the present extraordinary circumstances. The number of taxpayers is increasing, and the amount of the returns is steadily swelling.

GOVERNMENT MONOPOLIES.

The same may be said of the revenue from industrial and war profits taxation. These facts indicate that, despite the disturbed political situation, the financial apparatus of the country is retaining its vigour.

Direct taxation is supplemented by increased taxes on such articles as tobacco, etc. Steps are being taken to declare Government monopolies for the trade in sugar and other articles of mass consumption. These proposals have been approved of by the financial experts, and met with the approval of the Moscow Convention. Certain hardships in the present incidence of taxation will be eliminated by technical emendations in the laws, and there is every reason to believe that Russia, now free and sober, will bear the increased burden without flinching.

With the measures to increase the income are associated vigorous efforts to limit and reduce, where possible, the expenditure. Expenditure on the war, of course, is maintained at a level sufficient to maintain the army in a proper state of efficiency. But every care is now being taken to keep other expenditures within bounds.

SUCCESS BY LIBERTY LOAN.

The Liberty Loan issued by the Provisional Government has met with a satisfactory response. The amount already taken up is £200,000,000—a sum exceeding the total Russian Budget before the war. Subscriptions to the Liberty Loan are still coming in. It is true that the loan has been financed to a certain extent by the banks, but the amount of private subscriptions is very large.

The unfavourable foreign exchange proved very little beyond the fact that this country cannot export its produce. The great fall in the export of grain, timber etc., cannot be made good by the export of foreign securities, owing to the fact that holders of these securities are abroad. The prices that have been paid for foreign currency have been chiefly determined by the scarcity of that currency. The unfavourable tendency of the foreign exchange has brought about, the usual result. High prices for everything—that is the motto of the modern millionaire. Why not, therefore, for the foreign currency?

The financial position of Russia, declared Mr. Nekrasov, is not so bad as it appears. It is very far from being alarming.

THE WESTERN FRONT.

THE WEEK'S OPERATIONS REVIEWED.

HOW A GERMAN ATTACK WAS FRUSTRATED.

LONDON, Nov. 17. Reuter's Special Correspondent at the British Front, reviewing the week's operations telegraphs as follows:—

Throughout the week the artillery has been most active. When it was evident that the Germans were preparing a serious effort to recover some of the lost positions, from which we have now direct observation over all the plains in Belgium, shelling frequently rose to intense drumfire bombardments. The crisis came on Tuesday evening, when the German infantry were seen to be massing in formidable numbers for an attack, due north of Passchendaele. The attack, however, never developed, and in spite of all its preparation it was powerless when our guns shot down on the massing troops. The men in the front lines say they have never seen anything fiercer or more annihilating than our barrage. Under the German troops assembling simply melted. Very few of our men even in the advanced posts had an opportunity to fire a shot.

The great German effort failed before it had fairly begun. Then, taking advantage of the failure, we thrust forward to some isolated posts, and farther out in a swampy wilderness on our left, and the net result of the German effort was that with our main line unshaken we had gained a little on the flank.

Exhausted or discouraged by his failure, the enemy made no further effort to attack.

The British, last night, carried out a neat operation on the slope of the ridge, surprising the Germans while their relief was in progress. There was sharp and confused fighting at some points, but the resistance was not formidable. We have firmly established ourselves in our new positions.

CAPTURED GROUND CONSOLIDATED.

LONDON, Nov. 17. Field-Marshal Sir Douglas Haig reports:—

We consolidated the ground we captured last night northward and north-westward of Passchendaele. Hostile artillery is active eastward and north-eastward of Ypres.

LIVELY ARTILLERY ON FRENCH FRONT.

LONDON, Nov. 17. A French communiqué reports lively artillery firing on the right of the Meuse. In Upper Alsace an enemy attack at Altkirch was frustrated.

ITALIAN FRONT.

A SUCCESSFUL ATTACK BY ITALIAN TROOPS.

LONDON, Nov. 17. An Italian official report states:—

The enemy, without considering his losses, renewed his attacks on the Asiago Plateau to the sea between Salsedina and San Andre-Albaro-Barano. The enemy forced a passage under the protection of the most violent artillery fire, and crossed to the right bank at Folina and Fagara. Our artillery destroyed the enemy at Folina, and we made prisoners of 300 survivors.

We heavily attacked a greater number of the enemy that had crossed at Fagara, capturing 600 prisoners. Our artillery shelled the rest, hindering their return to the other bank.

The enemy at the Zenon loop is being closed up in a restricted zone.

THE EVACUATION OF VENICE.

REMOVAL OF ART TREASURES.

LONDON, Nov. 17. Reuter's Correspondent at Italian Headquarters has furnished picturesque particulars of the evacuation of Venice by civilians, and the removal of priceless belongings.

The Correspondent says that the Knights of Malta brought hospital trains to transport the old and infirm to southern havens.

The menaced city is being reverently stripped of its wealth of classic bronzes, marbles, mosaics and ironwork, which have long been the admiration of the civilised world. These treasures are being tenderly removed to the Michael Angelo Museum, in the Baths of Diocletian, at Rome, and include the famous gilded bronze horses which surrounded the principal portal of Saint Mark's, each being five feet high and weighing over four tons. Also the famous equestrian statue of Bartolomeo Colleoni, which Ruskin described as the most glorious work of sculpture extant.

GERMAN REPORT.

LONDON, Nov. 17. A German official report states:—

Despite a stubborn defence, the Austro-Hungarian "climbed" Monte Pradolon, between Brato and Pieve, capturing 800 prisoners.

A FAVORITE RUB DOWN.

THE golfer, the football player and the all round athlete know the value of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It is just the thing for a rub down after a hard game. All serious rheumatic-like pains and sprains and swellings are cured in seconds. Rub it on the affected part. It is a tried and tested remedy for all aches and pains. For sale by all Chemists and Druggists.

BRITISH AND FRENCH TROOPS.

INFECTIOUS HIGH SPIRITS.

Mr. Ward Price, the War Correspondent at Italian Headquarters, telegraphing on November 15th states:—

The roads of northern Italy, during the last two days, have been crowded with British khaki clad and blue clad Frenchmen. Their regimental bands are putting new heart into the Italian soldiers and populations. Each day the Allied reinforcements reach Italy in greater numbers. Some French troops, to save the congested railways, crossed the Alps through snow-covered passes. Already all are moving to their appointed places of the defence. [The Correspondent says:—] "I kept pace during the last two days with long columns with complete transport. The men are delighted with the change, though some had just come out of the line for a rest when ordered to Italy. I saw an English troop train last night at the station, and the occupants were boisterously singing choruses. Their cheerfulness is infectious, and soon all the Italians are smiling. The khaki are most popular, and it is wonderful to see tam-o'-shanter, kilts sightseeing in the medieval towns."

THE OPERATIONS IN PALESTINE.

MINOR ADVANCES.

LONDON, Nov. 17. A Palestine official report states:—

There were minor advances yesterday, in certain sectors of our front.

The Yeomanry, on Thursday, took the Adushush ridge, five miles south-eastward of Ramleh, and captured 360 prisoners. The Yeomanry carried the position at a gallop, and 431 Turks were counted on the ground.

The Australians, in taking El Tine, captured a large number of prisoners, three aeroplanes, and considerable quantities of ammunition and stores.

One hostile aeroplane was brought down, on Thursday.

The Turks are reported to be endeavouring to prepare an entrenched position northward of Jaffa, parallel with the Anja River.

THE AFRICAN CAMPAIGN.

THE MAHANGE AREA CLEARED.

LONDON, Nov. 17. An official report from East Africa states:—

On the Makonde Plateau we occupied Mviti on Wednesday, and Chiwata on Thursday. We captured 46 Germans and 435 Askaris.

Since November 1st, we killed or captured 473 Germans and 1,072 Askaris and captured two Naval guns, and 33 machine-guns.

The enemy has been driven out of the whole of the Mahange area.

THE PREMIER'S PARIS SPEECH.

THE MUCH CRITICISED PASSAGE.

LONDON, Nov. 17. Mr. Lloyd George's much criticised expression in his Paris speech, "the impenetrable barrier in the West," was used when he was referring to the break through by the Central Powers in the East. The following is the text of the passage:—"While we were hammering with the whole of our might at the impenetrable barrier in the West, the Central Powers feeling confident that we could not break through, threw their weight on that little country, crushed her resistance, and opened the gate to the East and unlocked the great stores of corn, cattle, minerals—the unlocked door of hope—all essential to enable Germany to sustain her in the struggle."

SELLING DUTCH COAST DEFENCE PLANS.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 17. The police have arrested a soldier in a hotel here for selling plans of the Dutch Coast defences to a German agent.

THE COTTON SUPPLIES.

LONDON, Nov. 17. The Cotton Control Board announces that there are 852,000 bales of cotton in the United Kingdom and on the sea, being equivalent to twelve weeks' supply, of which 574,000 bales are American, 84,138 East Indian, and 137,109 Egyptian and Persian.

The quantity of American cotton is short, and the position is much accentuated by the fact that the November shipments will amount to only about ten days' consumption.

THE SILVER MARKET.

LONDON, Nov. 17. Messrs. Samuel, Montagu and Company report that the Market is lifeless. Shanghai exchange is dull, and is little disposed to change, though there has been a slight recovery.

ACCIDENTS WILL HAPPEN.

IT may be impossible to prevent an accident, but it is not impossible to be prepared for it. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the best remedy for all aches and pains. Rub it on the affected part. It is a tried and tested remedy for all aches and pains. For sale by all Chemists and Druggists.

SHANGHAI AUTUMN RACE MEETING.

THE OPENING DAY.

The N. C. Daily News gives the following account of the opening day of the Autumn Race Meeting on the 13th inst.:

The opening day of the autumn race meeting was favoured with beautifully fine weather overhead. There had, however, been a keen frost during the previous night and there was a cold northerly breeze throughout the day, tempered by bright sunshine during the middle portion of the racing. Fields were good almost throughout, the smallest being those for the Eclipse Stakes and Autumn Cup, where there were several interesting finishes. The course was fairly fast, but not sufficiently so to cause any breaking of records, though in the St. Leger—a splendid race—Gladiator won in only one-fifth of a second longer time than Black Diamond's record for the distance of 4,312. There was very fair attendance on the lawn, and stands before the tiffin interval, and before the St. Leger the lawn and stands were well filled, but being predominant with the ladies and partly concealing some remarkably pretty costumes.

The day's racing began with the half-mile sprint—the Maloo Plate—for which 81 ponies faced the starter. This was won in somewhat easy fashion by a good race, by three lengths, but in a record time for second place which had only half a length advantage over Seamus.

The Criterion Stakes brought out a field of 11, and resulted in a triumph for the John Peel stable, the favourite Silver Stream, winning by 14 lengths from the second string—St. Leger—who was ridden with excellent judgment by our Tintagel visitor, Mr. E. U. Reid.

There was a field of 18 ponies for the Maiden Stakes, and this was generally considered to be a very open race, but the prospects and the public must have been greatly surprised with the result in which Elkwood beat Dalry by two lengths, Dalry finishing in turn one length ahead of Peking Chief. The winner returned his supporters a dividend of $115 in for a win and $34 for place; the second $108.30 for a place; and the third $24 for a place.

The Fawcett Stakes, though a long-distance race, attracted 14 starters and produced an excellent finish between Black Diamond, the favourite, and Standard Dabba. The first-named won by a margin of only half a length from Upwood Park, and Standard Dabba finished only a neck behind the second pony, both second and third gaining quickly on the winner in the run in.

On paper the Subscription Grifins Stakes, with 19 starters, appeared to be a very open race, but Darra had control of the field almost from start to finish, winning eventually by two lengths from Seamus, another couple of lengths dividing the runner up from Hawley.

Then came the race for the St. Leger Stakes in which 17 of the best class of grifins of the year competed. Gladiator was a hot favourite, but Sprig was heavily in demand, as was The Oracle, who was made third favourite. It was a pretty race to watch, and Mr. O. R. Burkill, who took the saddle pluckily, while suffering from lameness, rode Gladiator with thorough knowledge of the pony's ability and splendid judgment of pace. While Valleyfield Grey, Goose, Shirley, Sprig and Boyalard were at various stages amongst the leading five ponies, Gladiator was always holding a good position in the middle of the field. Three-quarters of a mile from home, Gladiator quickly began to make up ground on the leaders and by the time the Monument was reached had taken third place to Sprig and Shirley and was being closely followed by The Oracle and Fairlight. Along the home straight the favourite, Sprig and Shirley, and passed the winning post a comfortable winner from The Oracle by a margin of 1½ lengths, with Sprig third, another three lengths away. It was a very popular victory, and both owner and jockey were heartily congratulated.

The Autumn Cup saw the two well-known ponies, Beaconsfield and Winsome Dabba, opposed to each other, and in an interesting race Beaconsfield qualified for championship honours in defeat by Winsome Dabba by a neck and a half, a similar distance separating the Dabba from the fifteen pony Woeze-Kazoo. A field of 15 ponies competed in the race.

Kowloon won the Whangpoo Stakes somewhat easily from the Spotted Bird by two lengths, with Kalgan Chief four more lengths away in third place; and the Kalgan Plate, run in the dusk, was won very easily by Wild Gambie, who finished in the lead ahead of Ewkye.

The most successful jockeys were Stewart with two firsts and a second; Eera, two firsts and a second; and Johnston, two firsts and a third.

NEW HOTEL IN MANILA.

A Manila contemporary states that the Luneta Hotel, which it describes as the latest addition and the last word to the hospitality of Manila and the Far East, will open its doors to the public on the first day of December, 1917.

Situated on Calle San Luis, near the Elks and the Army and Navy Club, facing the Luneta, and overlooking Manila Bay, this hotel is a modern, up-to-date, six-story building with 65 rooms and suites, spacious lobbies, and a large, main dining room and several private dining rooms on the first floor. The entire building is furnished in uniform style, and has equipment and accommodations for the most fastidious. There are hot and cold, tub and shower baths, telephones and automatic elevators.

One feature of the building is the fact that all rooms are outside rooms. Another is the privacy of the arrangements. The building is fitted with a kitchen about 40 by 150 feet, which admits of speedy service.

VETARZO BLOOD MEDICINE

Never before was there anything like it, nor can its marvellous properties ever be equalled in all cases of impurity, or other impurities of the blood from whatever cause arising. No sooner is it taken into the system than it permeates and penetrates to the minutest capillaries, cleansing and expelling disease, wherever and in whatever form and with a restoring all blotches, pimples, spots, scurf, scrofulous and glandular swellings, discoloured, roughness and unsightly patches. Its effects are almost magical in the treatment of gout, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, pains and swellings of the joints, diarrhoea, blood poisoning, eczema, leprosy, psoriasis, and leprosy, and restores the system to its normal state. It improves the general health, and quickly restores long-standing bronchitis, asthma, and hoarseness, and restores the system to its normal state. It improves the general health, and quickly restores long-standing bronchitis, asthma, and hoarseness, and restores the system to its normal state.

VETARZO REMEDIES ARE SOLD BY BOOTHS, CHEMISTS.
